Beep

I can now feel it all The wind, the noises, the beep, the feel, the beep, his hands, the beep

I can't feel nothing else There's just it That beep That damn beep

I feel the beep and just the beep
It's present at al times
In everything I think there's a beep
I can't forget the beep
The beep's now part of me

Beep, beeep, beeeep I'm the beep It's terrible I just feel the beep I am the beep

It was bad
That way I can remember him
The beep's part of me
He's a part of me
He has always been a part of me
But now he is in me
In that beep
That beautiful beep

Beep, beep, beep, beep, beeeeeeeeeeeeel It was the start
Suddenly it was beginning all over again
I didn't feel it at first
But it was
Believe me
The beep, that beep, was the rebirth of me.
